

An Industrial Interaction on Business 4.0

Students listening to the lecture

Report

An Industrial interaction was conducted on Business 4.0 on 17th September, 2019 for all the students of M.Sc.(CS) & M.C.A organized by PG Department of Computer Science & Applications. Sri. JVRS. Prasad is the Resource Person. He is working in Tata Consultancy Services, at Hyderabad. He explained about the process of Business 4.0, its usage with a Point Presentation. Business 4.0 is mostly used in TCS Company for their business.

The four pillars of Business 4.0 are Intelligent, Agile, Automated, cloud. He has explained how the four pillars takes a major role in their software Industry.

He has explained how the software system have act intelligently, how agile process models work in the software industry, How a software system must provide automated responses, how the cloud technology have been used for storage purpose with real-world examples.

He has suggested students to learn the testing tools to test a software.

At the end of the session the resource person Sri. JVRS Prasad was felicitated by the management and staff.