

“FLOOD RELIEF SERVICES @ AMBAPURAM”
ORGANIZED BY
UGC-WOMEN’S STUDIES CENTRE
17-09-2024

REPORT

Introduction

In light of the devastating floods that affected the village of Ambapuram, the UGC Women's Studies Centre, in collaboration with the Inner Wheel Club of Vijayawada Sunshine, organized a relief service to provide immediate support to the affected families. This initiative aimed to deliver essential supplies and uplift the community during a critical time.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the relief effort were to supply essential food and clothing to families impacted by the floods, with a particular focus on vulnerable groups such as women and children.

Distribution Activities

On 17th September 2024, the UGC Women's Studies Centre and Inner Wheel Club of Vijayawada Sunshine team conducted the distribution event. Key items provided included rice bags to ensure families had access to a staple food source, fresh vegetables to promote nutrition and health, and 200 sarees for women to address immediate clothing needs and restore dignity. Biscuits were also distributed to children, providing them with a quick source of energy and comfort.

The event was honoured by the presence of key dignitaries, Dr. V. Narayana Rao (Administrative Officer), Dr. G. Krishnaveni (Principal), Ms. V. Sailaja (Director, Women’s Studies Centre), and Ms. Karmbir Kaur (Chairperson, Inner Wheel Club), and the members of UGC-Women’s Studies Centre who actively participated in the distribution process and engaged with beneficiaries.

Conclusion

The flood relief services organized by the UGC Women's Studies Centre in association with the Inner Wheel Club of Vijayawada Sunshine made a substantial impact on the lives of Ambapuram's residents. By delivering essential supplies and fostering community spirit, this initiative not only addressed immediate needs but also promoted resilience among villagers.
